Included were five men who were Boy Scouts in this territory's first troops. C. J. Braymer/<sup>Bradenton,</sup> and Walter P. Fuller, St. Petersburg, were in a Bradenton troop organized in September, 1910; Louis Stewart, Fort Myers, was in a local troop that was organized in 1911; Paul Kemp, Arcadia, was a member of a troop there, organized that same year. Dr. Richard Halton, Sarasota, was in a troop there in 1912. Charles Bigelow and Lanier Hendry, Fort Myers, were also members of the local troop but were unable to attend last night's meeting.
